

MEMO TO: TMI Graduate Students
FROM: Ian R. Hardin
SUBJECT: TXMI 8900 - Seminar

The objectives of this course are:

1. Provide a chance for all TMI graduate students to meet one another, and to gain appreciation for the full scope of the department, the college, and university.
2. Acquaint TMI graduate students with range of research work being directed by TMI faculty.

As part of your graduate experience, you will be expected to attend all TMI Departmental Seminars, unless you have a specific class conflict.

Schedule for TXMI 8900

Class will meet on either Tuesday or Thursday of each week at 5:00. The topics will vary, but all will be related to the objectives of the course listed above.
