Sweet and Spicy Shrimp

Servings 4

You’ll Need -                                               Take Out -
1/4 cup soy sauce                                           measuring cups
2 teaspoons SPLENDA Granular                                measuring spoons
2 teaspoons cornstarch                                      knife
½ teaspoon crushed pepper                                   spoon
½ teaspoon sesame or peanut oil                             10" skillet
1 small onion, sliced                                       small bowl
1 small green bell pepper, sliced
1 medium carrot, thinly sliced (½ cup)
3/4 lbs. uncooked, peeled, de-veined large shrimp, thawed if frozen

1. Mix soy sauce, SPLENDA Granular, cornstarch and red pepper. Set aside.

2. Heat vegetable oil in 10" skillet over medium-high heat. Cook onion, bell pepper and carrot in oil 2 to 3 minutes, stirring occasionally, until crisp-tender.

3. Stir in soy sauce mixture and shrimp. Cook 3 to 5 minutes, stirring occasionally, until shrimp are pink and firm and sauce is thickened.

Points to Remember about the Sweet & Spicy Shrimp Recipe:

1. Low sodium soy sauce may be used to reduce the sodium.

2. Cook shrimp just until pink. Over-cooking will cause the shrimp to become tough.

3. This is a nice low fat dish.

4. Sesame oil provides extra flavor.

Points to Remember about the Lemon Chicken Recipe:

1. The red & green pepper gives color to this low-fat dish.

2. Canola oil or olive oil can be used for the vegetable oil. Both contain heart-healthy monounsaturated fats.

3. For a substitute for fresh ginger, minced or pureed ginger are preferred over ground ginger because of the taste. You can also freeze fresh ginger.

4. Two garlic cloves can be substituted for 1 teaspoon minced garlic or 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder.
Quick Glazed Pork Loin

6 Servings

You’ll Need - Take Out -

1 pork tenderloin (approx. 1 lb.) measuring cups
1/4 cup water measuring spoons
2 tablespoon tomato paste small mixing bowl
1 tablespoon orange juice concentrate 13x9 inch baking pan
2 ½ teaspoons chili powder knife
1 tablespoon SPLENDA Granular fork
1 tablespoon white vinegar spoon
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 package (14 oz.) frozen vegetable blend (about 3 cups)

1. Preheat oven 425° F. Rinse pork loin and pat dry. Set aside.

2. Mix in small bowl, the water, tomato paste, orange juice concentrate, chili powder, salt, SPLENDA Granular, and white vinegar.

3. Place pork loin in a 13x9 inch pan. Cover with half of the glaze. Bake 15 minutes.

4. Remove pork loin from oven. Cover with remaining glaze. Place vegetables around pork loin. Bake an additional 15 minutes or until the vegetables are hot and the pork loin is completely cooked.*

*Pork loin is completely cooked when poked with a fork in the thickest section of the loin and juice runs clear.

Double the glaze recipe to make extra glaze for dipping or sauce.

Points to Remember about the Quick Glazed Pork Loin Recipe:

1. Pork tenderloin is very low in fat and a good source of protein, B vitamins and iron.

2. A variety of fresh vegetables can be substituted for the frozen vegetables. Steam about 3 cups fresh vegetables until partially cooked before adding to pork. Choose vegetables such as carrots, onions, broccoli, & green beans.

3. Salt can be omitted to lower the sodium in this recipe.
