

The University of Georgia
Please Type or Print each section

College of Family and Consumer Sciences

International Study Awards Application

Applicant must be a student within the College of Family and Consumer Sciences and an applicant to a FACS International Study Abroad program (this does not include New York or Washington D.C. Study Tours). These funds will not be available to pay program fees. Money is not available until 10 days prior to the first day of class for the semester awarded, and will be used to pay tuition first. Contact Student Accounts for details.

Name _____ Age _____ Social Security Number _____

Local Mailing Address _____ Apt.# _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____ Day Phone (____) _____

Email: _____ Hometown: _____

In which study abroad program will you participate? _____

Dates of the Program _____ Courses for which you will receive credit _____

1. Why are you pursuing this study abroad experience? (Please limit answer to the space allotted)

2. Please list College/University activities in the space provided below:

3. Please write a brief summary of your financial need on the back of this page. Financial need is a key factor in awarding the FACS International Study Scholarships.

Applicant's Signature _____ Date _____

Advisor's Signature _____ Date _____

International Program Coordinator's Signature _____ Date _____

Return applications to Student Services, 210 Dawson Hall, by Feb. 15, 2007

All applicants will receive notification of scholarship decisions by mail in mid-April.

For Office Use Only

Cum _____