

The University of Georgia
College of Family and Consumer Sciences
Department of Textiles, Merchandising and Interiors

Historic Clothing and Textiles Collection

The goals and priorities for improvement of the Historic Clothing and Textiles Collection are achieved primarily through the generosity of private donations. If you would like to support the collection either through and outright gift or an in-kind contribution, please contact Dr. José Blanco at 706.542.4885 or jblanco@uga.edu or Katrina Bowers at 706.542.4946 or kbowers@uga.edu.

All gifts are tax deductible and donated through the UGA ARCH Foundation.

Suggestions for Contributions:

- $20 purchases a package of 100 acid-free papers for conservation.
- $30 purchases a small acid-free textile conservation box.
- $50 purchases a large acid-free textiles conservation box.
- $80 purchases one roll of acid-free paper for conservation.
- $120 purchases one conservation head form for hats.
- $600 purchases one conservation display form.
- $1200 purchases a cabinet for flat textile storage.

Name: _____

Telephone number: _____

E-mail: _____

Address: _____

Additional comments: _____

Amount I wish to contribute: $ _____

(Write checks to UGA-ARCH foundation. You can indicate Historic Clothing and Textile Collection on the "For" line)

____ Please contact me to discuss a possible contribution.

Send this form to:

Historic Clothing and Textiles Collection
Department of Textiles, Merchandising and Interiors
303 Dawson Hall
Athens, GA 30602-3622