

Introduction

Gainesville City construction students partnered with the City of Gainesville Community Development Department to work on two low income housing projects. This enabled students to gain real world construction experience and valuable on the job training. Students gained many insights into the construction industry by being paired with a local General Contractor and working with city officials.

Positives of Project

- On-The-Job Training
- Real World Construction Experience
- Understanding Deadlines
- Job Pride
- Team Work

Project House

Front View 2nd House

Bathroom

Starting Bathroom

Halfway

Completed Room Shower

Fransico and Jesus working walls

Will Framing window opening.

Hanging Windows

GHS students pulling wire.

Framing the Rake wall

Front View of Washington St.

Side View Washington St.

Student setting electrical box.

Framing Dormer

Finished Bath.

Handicap accessible Kitchen.

Wall Priming.

Electrician working with students.

Negatives of Project

- Transportation
- Travel Time
- Weather
- Class size
- Teenagers