The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination against its customers, employees, and applicants for employment on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, and where applicable, political beliefs, marital status, familial or parental status, social or economic status, or all or part of an individual's income derived from any public assistance program, or protected genetic information in employment in any program or activity conducted or funded by the Department. (Detail prohibited basis will apply to all programs and employment activities.) If you wish to file a complaint or request more information, please contact the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, found online at <http://www.usda.gov>, or call (866) 632-9992 to request the form. You may also write a letter containing all the information requested on the form. Send your completed complaint form letter to us by mail at U.S. Department of Agriculture, Director, Office of Adjudication, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, by fax (202) 696-7442 or email at program.intake@usda.gov. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have speech disabilities and wish to file a complaint or request more information please contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339 or (800) 845-4136 (in Spanish). Persons with disabilities who wish to file a program complaint, please see information above on how to contact us by mail directly or by email. If you require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.), please contact USDA's National Center for Consumer Information at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer. Based on the findings of Cooperative Extension Work, based on the passage of the Food & Agricultural Act of 1977 (on September 29, 1977) and in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Mark L. Lamm, Jr., Associate Dean for Extension for the College of Agriculture, Family Science and Technology, Fort Valley State University, a State and Land Grant Institution, University System of Georgia. Fort Valley State University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate and master's degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-674-4300 for questions about the accreditation of Fort Valley State University. Fort Valley State University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution and does not discriminate against applicants, students or employees on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability or marital or veteran status.
