Financial Planning, Housing and Consumer Economics

Learn More

We provide leading-edge teaching, research and outreach that improve the economic and financial well-being for families and individuals, increase the quality of life in families, individuals and communities, and prepare future leaders and entrepreneurs.

Undergraduate Programs
- Housing Management & Policy
- Residential Property Management
- Social Entrepreneurship for Consumer Well-being
- Consumer Economics
- Financial Planning
- Applied Consumer Analytics

Graduate Programs

M.S.
- Consumer Economics
- Financial Planning
- Housing Management and Policy

Professional Master's
- Online Financial Planning
- Applied Consumer Analytics
- Community Development
- Consumer Economics
- Financial Planning
- Housing Management & Policy

Ph.D.
- Financial Planning
- Housing Management & Policy
- Consumer Economics

Opportunities Outside the Classroom
- Internships
- The Legislative Aide program
- ASPIRE Clinic
- Volunteer Income Tax Assistance
- Study abroad in London
- Summer study in Washington, DC

What You Will Acquire? Career Pathway

Consumer Economics
- Analytical and research skills
- Communication skills
- Leadership skills
- A consumer advocacy mindset
- An entrepreneurial mindset
- The ability to view issues from diverse perspectives

Financial Planning
- Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)
- Accredited Financial Counselor (AFC®)
- Certified Retirement Counselor (CRC®)

Housing Management & Policy
- Residential Property Management
- Housing Market Data Analytics
- Community Development

Learn More Now:
https://www.fcs.uga.edu/fhce

Melissa McBride
mmbbride@uga.edu
Administrative Specialist