WHY APPLY TO THE LEGISLATIVE AIDE LEADERSHIP FELLOWS PROGRAM AS A FINANCIAL PLANNING MAJOR?

The program is a full-time spring fellowship opportunity for FACS undergraduate and graduate students to intern for a Georgia senator/representative during the Georgia General Assembly session at the Capitol in Atlanta. Interns also act as a guide to fellow FACS students, faculty, and legislators at the annual FACS Day at the Capitol in February.

Knowledge, Skills, and Experiences Employers Want That You’ll Receive After Completing This Fellowship:

- A deeper understanding of policies and processes that affect tax issues, retirement strategies, and insurance options as well as other issues related to financial planning
- Knowledge about current policy debates that affect future financial planning decisions
- Application of classroom knowledge, including economic theory and consumer decision-making
- Connections with influential leaders and lawmakers who make decisions that influence the financial management of individuals, families and communities
- Opportunities to make a large-scale impact on the everyday lives of Georgians
- Significant leadership development in a unique, consequential environment
- Opportunities to communicate and develop relationships with diverse audiences from constituents to senior-level leadership that parallels communication with potential clients and managers in a financial planning setting
- Opportunities to practice conflict management and creative problem-solving
- Experience in an office setting where open-mindedness, patience, flexibility, and an ability to create a welcoming, inclusive environment are valued
- Experience managing multiple projects in a dynamic, fast-paced environment
- Opportunities to demonstrate initiative and ability to take on far-reaching responsibility
- Practice of your public speaking, document analysis, and customer service skills
