WHY APPLY TO THE LEGISLATIVE AIDE LEADERSHIP FELLOWS PROGRAM AS A HOUSING MANAGEMENT & POLICY MAJOR?

The program is a full-time spring fellowship opportunity for FACS undergraduate and graduate students to intern for a Georgia senator/representative during the Georgia General Assembly session at the Capitol in Atlanta. Interns also act as a guide to fellow FACS students, faculty, and legislators at the annual FACS Day at the Capitol in February.

Knowledge, Skills, and Experiences Employers Want That You’ll Receive After Completing This Fellowship:

Develop a deeper understanding of policies and processes that affect consumers and the housing market
• Become a better more informed residential property manager or real estate agent
• Apply your classroom knowledge of consumer economics and housing theories
• Create connections with influential leaders and lawmakers who make decisions that impact governmental policies and the housing market
• Make a large-scale impact on the everyday lives of Georgians
• Significant leadership development in a unique, consequential environment
• Ability to communicate and develop relationships with diverse audiences from constituents to senior-level leadership, much like with potential clients and managers
• Conflict management and creative problem-solving
• Open-mindedness, patience, flexibility, and an ability to create a welcoming, inclusive environment
• Manage multiple projects in a dynamic, fast-paced environment
• Demonstrate initiative and ability to take on far-reaching responsibility
• Public speaking, document analysis, and customer service skills
• STAND OUT IN FUTURE INTERVIEWS WITH A UNIQUE, POWERFUL INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

Other Reasons to Apply:
• Earn up to 12 hours of course credit when enrolled in FACS 5910 or FACS 7910
• Receive a $4,000 stipend for living expenses
• Satisfy the Experiential Learning requirement (undergraduate students)
• Work with an alumni mentor who has previous Legislative Aide experience
• Become career ready by attaining and demonstrating competencies that prepare you for the workplace
