Jamille Hawkins, DeKalb County FACS Agent

Education: B.S. Child Development and Family Studies from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University

Programming focus: Chronic Disease Prevention/Healthy Lifestyles; Positive Development for Individuals, Families and Communities

My goal as a Family and Consumer Science Extension Agent is to improve the quality of life for individuals and families in DeKalb County. I want to help the residents of our county meet new challenges in a changing environment. My goal is to focus the residents economic and social well-being and offer programs that will help them extend their income, improve their health and strengthen their personal and family relationships.
