

College of Family and Consumer Sciences

Student Success and Advising Center
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Spring 2020 SSAC Semester Report

Spring 2020 brought successes and challenges. It also brought resiliency as we shifted work responsibilities and student engagement online due to COVID-19. A brief semester summary is below.

By The Numbers

Academic Advising

- Regular Appointments: 1,104
- Drop-Ins: 33
- Majors Added: 208

Undergraduate Enrollment

- Total: 1783

Prospective Student Recruitment

- Events: 22
 - 10 Information Sessions, 11 Conferences/High School Events , 1 Group Tour
- 25 Individual Visits/Communications
- Interactions
 - Approximately 6,000 interactions with 800 direct contacts

SSAC Interns

- 9 interns, 1200+ impact hours

Legislative Aides

- 2 Aides participated under a redesigned program

FACS 2000/E

- 2 courses offered in person, 1 online

Highlights

- Received a commendation from the AAFCS Accreditation Site Team
- Transitioned Bulldog Basics to an online request/contact-less pickup system
- Created first FACS Instagram highlight, Leadership, showcasing the Legislative Aide Leadership Fellows Program
- Participated in the FHCE Career and Internship Fair to highlight the Legislative Aide Leadership Fellows Program
- FACS 2001: Leadership in Family and Consumer Sciences approved
- Selected 2020-2022 faculty ambassadors and 18 new and 13 returning student ambassadors
- Distributed first Student Organization Newsletter to student leaders and advisors
- Hosted the SLAC & SSAC Student Organizations Fair
- Hosted the SSAC/SAFACS Valentine's Day Sweet and Treats
- Hosted FACS Day at the Capitol for 100+ attendees