

Super-Includer Award

Purpose

To recognize someone in the college (faculty or staff) who has helped others feel more included in the college. This award is in support of the statement on diversity and inclusion adopted upon recommendation by the Faculty Advisory Committee 2013:

The College of Family and Consumer Sciences embraces a commitment to diversity by modeling for the state and nation a community of individuals and programs which seek to reduce prejudice, disparities, or discrimination and build a supportive environment for all.

Eligibility

The Super-Includer Award is given to someone (faculty or staff) who has helped others feel more included in the college.

Nominations

Nominations may be made by co-workers, faculty, students, alumni, or by self-nomination. Nominations are not rolled over from previous year(s).

How to nominate

Nominations may be submitted electronically or hard copy to the Dean's office.

The nominations for the College shall consist of:

- Submit a statement, 200 words or less, addressing why this individual deserves the Super-includer award. Give examples of actions and evidence of commitment and dedication to the spirit of inclusion and a supportive environment for all. How has this individual, a member of the college's faculty or staff, gone above and beyond their formal duties in making the experiences of others in the college productive and positive?

The recipient will be recognized at the Celebrating Excellence Luncheon.

Deadline

January 30, 5:00 p.m.

Contact Information

Assistant to the Dean
224 Dawson Hall
[fac dean@uga.edu](mailto:fac dean@uga.edu)
706.542.4879